NYCDAC Business Meeting Minutes - 12/20/2022

- Meeting opened with responsibility statement
- Old meeting minutes accepted
- Treasury Report
  - No cash donations
  - Venmo donations $295.71
  - Expected donations section added - not sure when groups are going to be starting regular monthly contributions
  - If recurring donations come in we will have about $540 rolling over into January
  - Every month we will have a minimum of $730 incoming
  - Midnight donation came in
  - Andrew to check on Rainbow Room
  - Chris is checking on Westwingers, may come in at the end of this month
  - Treasury report accepted
- No more old biz
- Lucy & Andrew updated the language on the website
- Chris - Soho group made a motion to pay for an interpreter but they haven't been using that money because their interpreter has been away. They haven't responded to donating the money to NYCDAC. Chris also reached out to two other groups (Lambda and Oxford Group) & followed up but has not received responses. High Noon updated their listing on intergroup to indicate that they are willing to pay for an interpreter upon request.
- Midnite is donating $300 a month to NYCDAF
- Rainbow Room is donating $150 a month to NYCDAF
- New biz:
  - Shorten announcement to: We've been working to expand access to the deaf, which includes getting interpreters to meetings, please come see me after the meeting.
  - New interpreters have been added in the last month
- Chris will elaborate on the tips & faq section of our website for people who want to be better allies in AA meetings
- Service positions:
  - Andrew will stay on as Chair for 1 year
  - Claire will stay on as secretary
  - Michael S will stay on as treasurer
  - Lucy & Andrew will work on interpreter coordinating
  - Michael will be starting to track paying interpreters
- Continued discussion of how to get more individual donations
- Claire is going to make business cards with the venmo QR code & our website on it to hand out to people at biz meetings
- Meeting closed with Responsibility statement.